

Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP Joins Prestigious Claims and Litigation Management Alliance

Dallas, Texas, September 20, 2012 – Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP is pleased to announce that the firm has accepted an invite to join the prestigious Claims and Litigation Management Alliance. The CLM is a nonpartisan alliance comprised of thousands of insurance companies, corporations, Corporate Counsel, Litigation and Risk Managers, claims professionals and attorneys. Through education and collaboration, the CLM strives to promote and further the highest standards of claims and litigation management. Selected attorneys and law firms are extended membership by invitation only, based on nominations from CLM Fellows.

“The CLM’s goals are closely aligned with our firm’s values,” said Pryce Tucker, a partner in HDBD’s Dallas office. “We’re all committed to the advancement of excellence in the defense of claims and litigation, and I look forward to being an active and productive CLM member.”

Pryce Tucker

Pryce was the first HDBD attorney to join the CLM. He has handled numerous complex civil litigation and product liability matters in state and federal courts throughout Texas and several other states. A significant portion of his trial practice has involved the defense of major product manufacturers against catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death claims. He has also defended many cases involving alleged post-crash fuel-fed fires—an area that has benefited from his first-hand experience and training as a firefighter.
