

Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP Adds Two New Associate Attorneys

Dallas, Texas, November 22, 2013 – Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP (HDBD) is pleased to announce the addition of two new associate attorneys in the firm’s Dallas office, Perrin Fourmy and Holly Naehritz.

Perrin Fourmy joined the firm after earning his law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law. During that time, Perrin gained experience in Moot Court and Mock Trial Competitions, and by trying cases at the Forsyth County District Attorney’s Office. In recognition of his advocacy skills, the Wake Forest Faculty selected him as a member of the Order of the Barristers. Perrin also won the Wake Forest Student Trial Bar’s 2012 Zeliff Competition Finals. Before attending law school, Perrin taught middle school for 8 years while coaching middle school and high school soccer. In 2002, he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from North Carolina State University.

Holly Naehritz joins the firm after completing a clerkship for the Honorable Reed O’Connor in the U S District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division. She earned her law degree from Baylor University, where she was a member of the Baylor Barrister Society, Women’s Legal Society, and competed on multiple mock trial teams. While attending law school, Holly interned for Justice Don Willett in the Texas Supreme Court and for Judge Lena Levario in the 204th Judicial District Court for Dallas County. In 2009, she received her Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Texas at Austin.
