

Twelve Attorneys from Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP Selected for 2012 Texas Super Lawyers List; Three Recognized for Tenth Consecutive Year

Dallas, Texas, September 21, 2012 – A significant percentage of Hartline Dacus Barger Dreyer LLP's (HDBD) attorneys have once again been selected for the Texas Super Lawyers® list, in recognition of their outstanding success and knowledge in their specific practice areas. Twelve of the firm's attorneys have received this recognition for 2012.

Texas Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters business, is a rating service of outstanding Texas lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The annual selections are based on a rigorous, multiphase process, including peer nominations and review, and independent research. No more than 5% of the lawyers in Texas are selected to be a part of this list.

In addition, HDBD partners Darrell Barger, Richard Crews and Mike Terry have been recognized as Texas Super Lawyers for ten consecutive years. Barger was selected in the field of Civil Litigation Defense, Terry in the field of Personal Injury Defense, and Crews in the field of Personal Injury Defense.

"It's impressive that Darrell, Mike and Richard have earned this honor from Texas Super Lawyers for ten years in a row," said Jeff Patterson, HDBD's managing partner. "They have made such a positive impact in the legal community, and this recognition reflects the respect they have gained from their peers through hard work and dedication."

John Dacus, Kyle Dreyer, Scott Edwards, Vernon Hartline, Charles Lyman, Jeff Patterson and John Wallace were all previously chosen as Texas Super Lawyers. This is the first time David Green and Marshall Rosenberg have been included on the list.

"Our firm is proud to have twelve attorneys honored for their achievements and be included on this year's Texas Super Lawyers list," said Kyle Dreyer, partner in the Dallas office. "It is a privilege to work alongside such talented lawyers."
